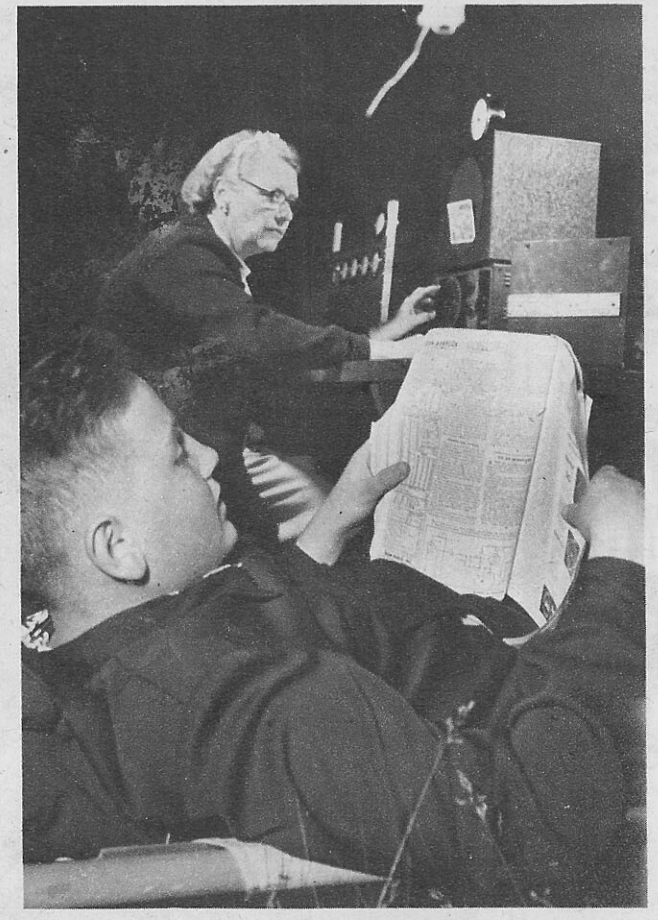
JUL 20 1952

Fan Shoots Arrow, Antenna Into High Tree

To get an antenna into a high tree, Dr. G. P. Lawrence, 4615 W. Blue Mound rd., used a bow and arrow with a string attached. A novice, his station is WN9RZS.



While Patrick Shanahan, 14, of 3251 S. Illinois av., caught up with radio news on his bunk, Mrs. Mary A. Meyer, 3903 N. 67th st., kept a vigil at the controls in the 80 meter novice tent.

Field day chairman Douglas Pavek (right), 4669 N. 18th st., gave some tips to novice Jerome Czarkowski, 15, of 2217 E. Stratford ct., Shorewood, as they ate while perched on a car.

Journal Staff

JUL 20 1952

Newspaper Article of 1952 on MRAC participation in Field Day